

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF JEFFERSON COUNTY
STATE OF MISSOURI

KEITH REESE,

Plaintiff,

vs.

HOYT ARCHERY, EASTON
TECHNICAL PRODUCTS, INC., and CABELA'S RETAIL MO, LLC,

Defendant.

Cause No.:

Division:

Personal Injury:
Products Liability
In excess of $25,000.00PETITION

COMES NOW plaintiff, Keith Reese, by and through his attorneys, and for his cause of actions states the following:

ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL COUNTS

1. That at all times relevant to this action plaintiff was a resident and citizen of State of Missouri, County of Jefferson.
2. That at all times relevant to this action defendant Hoyt Archery was a corporation headquartered in Salt Lake City, Utah and was, in part, in the business of designing, manufacturing and selling the Hoyt bow and its component parts. It does business in Jefferson County, Missouri.
3. Easton Technical Products, Inc. is a foreign corporation headquartered in Salt Lake City, Utah and it owns Hoyt Archery.
4. That at all times relevant to this action defendant Cabela's Retail MO, LLC, was a Missouri registered corporation and was, in part, in the business of selling and distributing Hoyt bows and its component parts.

5. That at all times relevant to this action Cabela's Retail MO, LLC was a sporting goods store in the business, in part, of selling archery equipment as well as customizing and assembling bows, including the bow at issue in this case.

6. That prior to August 18, 2011 plaintiff purchased a Hoyt archery bow from Cabela's Retail MO, LLC, Missouri.

7. That plaintiff, on August 18, 2011, was using said Hoyt bow for target practice when it exploded upon release severely injuring his arm, wrist and hand and the parts thereof.

COUNT I

Negligence Count vs. Hoyt Archery

8. That it was entirely foreseeable to and well known by Hoyt Archery that accidents and incidents involving its bows, such as occurred herein, and that bows would "fail" during the ordinary use of the product.

9. Defendant owed a duty to plaintiff to design, manufacture, fabricate, sell and maintain archery bow such that they would be in a reasonably safe condition at the time herein mentioned. Those defects that defendant could not remove through the design, manufacture and fabrication process. Defendant owed a duty to warn against.

10. That at the time of plaintiff's injuries, Defendant Hoyt Archery was negligent and careless in its development, manufacture, packaging and sale of the bow in one or more of the following respects to with:

- a. Defendant Hoyt Archery was negligent in the design, manufacture, assembly, marketing, and testing of the product in question;
- b. Defendant Hoyt Archery negligently manufactured the bow in a manner that created a structural weakness which thereby caused serious injury to plaintiff;
- c. Defendant Hoyt Archery negligently designed the bow such that it shattered when used in a normal and intended manner;

- d. Defendant Hoyt Archery failed to warn plaintiff of said hazards and thereby caused serious injury to plaintiff;
- e. Defendant Hoyt Archery failed to properly instruct plaintiff of safe use of said bow and thereby caused serious injury to plaintiff;
- f. Defendant Hoyt Archery failed to properly label the bow as to its hazardous and dangerous propensities and thereby caused serious injury to plaintiff, and;
- g. Defendant Hoyt Archery failed to take the necessary steps to assure that a safer bow was available.

11. That all injuries are permanent and painful and will continue to be so in the future.

12. That as a direct result of the negligence and carelessness of the defendants, jointly and severally, plaintiff accumulated medical bills in excess of $10,000.00 and will continue to accumulate bills in the future.

13. That as a direct result of the negligence of the defendants, jointly and severally, plaintiff suffered lost wages.

WHEREFORE Plaintiff prays the court to enter judgment against defendant Hoyt Archery in an amount in excess of $25,000.00 together with his costs herein expended.

COUNT II

Strict Liability Count vs. Hoyt Archery

14. Plaintiff restates and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in this petition as if it were fully laid out herein.

15. That at the time of plaintiff's injuries, the bow was being used in a manner reasonably anticipated by defendant Hoyt Archery.

16. That at the time of plaintiff's injuries, the bow in question, designed, sold and manufactured by defendant Hoyt Archery was unreasonably dangerous and defective when put to its reasonable use in the following respects, to wit:

- a. The bow was defectively designed, manufactured, assembled, marketed, labeled, and tested by Defendant Hoyt Archery;
- b. That the bow was defective and unreasonably dangerous in its design and manufacture in that the aforesaid bow created a dangerous condition by it being structurally weak enough to fail during normal and intended use;
- c. That the bow created a defective and dangerous condition in its design, manufacture, marketing, and sale in that it failed to warn of its dangerous propensities, and;
- d. That said bow was inadequately labeled as to its dangerous and hazardous propensities.

17. That the foregoing acts and/or omissions of defendant Hoyt Archery were a direct and proximate cause of the plaintiff's damages as set forth in count one of this petition.

WHEREFORE plaintiff prays the court to enter judgment against defendant Hoyt Archery in an amount in excess of $25,000.00 together with his costs herein expended.

COUNT III

Breach of Warranty Against Hoyt Archery

18. That plaintiff restates and re-alleges each and every count alleged in this Petition as if it were more fully set forth herein.

19. That defendant Hoyt Archery expressly implied and warranted that the bow was reasonably fit for the particular purpose and use for which it was intended and purchased.

20. That defendant Hoyt Archery breached its aforesaid warranties.

21. That the foregoing acts and/or omissions of defendant Hoyt Archery were a direct and proximate cause of Plaintiff's damages as set forth in count one of this petition.

WHEREFORE Plaintiff prays the court to enter judgment against defendant Hoyt Archery in an amount in excess of $25,000.00 together with his costs herein expended.

COUNT IV

Negligence Count vs. Easton Technical Products, Inc.

22. That it was entirely foreseeable to and well known by Easton that accidents and incidents involving its bows, such as occurred herein, and that bows would "fail" during the ordinary use of the product.

23. Defendant owed a duty to plaintiff to design, manufacture, fabricate, sell and maintain archery bow such that they would be in a reasonably safe condition at the time herein mentioned. Those defects that defendant could not remove through the design, manufacture and fabrication process. Defendant owed a duty to warn against.

24. That at the time of plaintiff's injuries, Defendant Easton Technical Products, Inc. was negligent and careless in its development, manufacture, packaging and sale of the bow in one or more of the following respects to with:

- a. Defendant Easton Technical Products, Inc. was negligent in the design, manufacture, assembly, marketing, and testing of the product in question;
- h. Defendant Easton Technical Products, Inc. negligently manufactured the bow in a manner that created a structural weakness which thereby caused serious injury to plaintiff;
- i. Defendant Easton Technical Products, Inc. negligently designed the bow such that it shattered when used in a normal and intended manner;
- j. Defendant Easton Technical Products, Inc. failed to warn plaintiff of said hazards and thereby caused serious injury to plaintiff;
- k. Defendant Easton Technical Products, Inc. failed to properly instruct plaintiff of safe use of said bow and thereby caused serious injury to plaintiff;
- l. Defendant Easton Technical Products, Inc. failed to properly label the bow as to its hazardous and dangerous propensities and thereby caused serious injury to plaintiff, and;
- m. Defendant Easton Technical Products, Inc. failed to take the necessary steps to assure that a safer bow was available.

25. That all injuries are permanent and painful and will continue to be so in the future.

26. That as a direct result of the negligence and carelessness of the defendants, jointly and severally, plaintiff accumulated medical bills in excess of $10,000.00 and will continue to accumulate bills in the future.

27. That as a direct result of the negligence of the defendants, jointly and severally, plaintiff suffered lost wages.

WHEREFORE Plaintiff prays the court to enter judgment against defendant Easton Technical Products, Inc. in an amount in excess of $25,000.00 together with his costs herein expended.

COUNT V

Strict Liability Count vs. Easton Technical Products, Inc.

28. Plaintiff restates and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in this petition as if it were fully laid out herein.

29. That at the time of plaintiff's injuries, the bow was being used in a manner reasonably anticipated by defendant Easton Technical Products, Inc..

30. That at the time of plaintiff's injuries, the bow in question, designed, sold and manufactured by defendant Easton Technical Products, Inc. was unreasonably dangerous and defective when put to its reasonable use in the following respects, to wit:

- a. The bow was defectively designed, manufactured, assembled, marketed, labeled, and tested by Defendant Easton Technical Products, Inc.;
- b. That the bow was defective and unreasonably dangerous in its design and manufacture in that the aforesaid bow created a dangerous condition by it being structurally weak enough to fail during normal and intended use;
- c. That the bow created a defective and dangerous condition in its design, manufacture, marketing, and sale in that it failed to warn of its dangerous propensities, and;
- d. That said bow was inadequately labeled as to its dangerous and hazardous propensities.

31. That the foregoing acts and/or omissions of defendant Easton Technical Products, Inc. were a direct and proximate cause of the plaintiff's damages as set forth in count one of this petition.

WHEREFORE plaintiff prays the court to enter judgment against defendant Easton Technical Products, Inc. in an amount in excess of $25,000.00 together with his costs herein expended.

COUNT VI

Breach of Warranty Against Easton Technical Products, Inc.

32. That plaintiff restates and re-alleges each and every count alleged in this Petition as if it were more fully set forth herein.

33. That defendant Easton Technical Products, Inc. expressly implied and warranted that the bow was reasonably fit for the particular purpose and use for which it was intended and purchased.

34. That defendant Easton Technical Products, Inc. breached its aforesaid warranties.

35. That the foregoing acts and/or omissions of defendant Easton Technical Products, Inc. were a direct and proximate cause of Plaintiff's damages as set forth in count one of this petition.

WHEREFORE Plaintiff prays the court to enter judgment against defendant Easton Technical Products, Inc. in an amount in excess of $25,000.00 together with his costs herein expended.

COUNT VII

Negligence Count vs. Cabela's Retail MO, LLC

36. That it was entirely foreseeable to and well known by Cabela's Retail MO, LLC that accidents and incidents involving its bows, such as occurred herein, and that bows would "fail" during the ordinary use of the product.

37. Defendant owed a duty to plaintiff to sell and maintain archery bows such that each would be in a reasonably safe condition at the time herein mentioned.

38. That at the time of plaintiff's injuries, Defendant Cabela's Retail MO, LLC was negligent and careless in its development, packaging and sale of the bow in one or more of the following respects, to wit:

- a. Defendant Cabela's Retail MO, LLC was negligent in the assembly, marketing, testing and sale of the product in question;
- b. Defendant Cabela's Retail MO, LLC failed to warn plaintiff of said hazards associated with failure of its bows and thereby caused serious injury to plaintiff;
- c. Defendant Cabela's Retail MO, LLC failed to properly instruct plaintiff of safe use of said bow and thereby caused serious injury to plaintiff;
- d. Defendant Cabela's Retail MO, LLC failed to properly label or tag the bow as to its hazardous and dangerous propensities to fail and thereby caused serious injury to plaintiff, and;
- e. Defendant Cabela's Retail MO, LLC failed to take the necessary steps to assure that a safer bow was available.

39. That all injuries are permanent and painful and will continue to be so in the future.

40. That as a direct result of the negligence and carelessness of the defendants, jointly and severally, plaintiff accumulated medical bills in excess of $10,000.00 and will continue to accumulate bills in the future.

41. That as a direct result of the negligence of the defendants, jointly and severally, plaintiff suffered lost wages.

WHEREFORE Plaintiff prays the court to enter judgment against defendant Cabela's Retail MO, LLC in an amount in excess of $25,000.00 together with his costs herein expended.

COUNT VIII

Strict Liability Count vs. Cabela's Retail MO, LLC

42. Plaintiff restates and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in this petition as if it were fully laid out herein.

43. That at the time of plaintiff's injuries, the bow was being used in a manner reasonably anticipated by defendant Cabela's Retail MO, LLC.

44. That at the time of plaintiff's injuries, the bow in question, was sold and marketed by defendant Cabela's Retail MO, LLC was unreasonably dangerous and defective when put to its reasonable use in the following respects, to wit:

- a. The bow was defectively assembled, marketed, labeled, tested and sold by Defendant Cabela's Retail MO, LLC;
